Is it possible to live a whole life in 31 years?

For Lizzie, the answer is YES!

Lizzie wanted to have it all. There was

- . No room she couldn't light up just by entering it
- . No role she couldn't act
- . No acquaintance she couldn't turn into a friend
- . No job she couldn't accomplish.

If you asked what was her hurry, why go to law school, have a baby, and begin a new career - all at the same time - she would say, "because I CAN do it all, and the best time is NOW."

She never knew there was one final challenge even her beauty, her focus, her confidence, her charisma could not overcome.

We stand in awe of Lizzie. We must act on the example of her life by promising ourselves to do it all, and do it NOW.

Because the only time for any of us is NOW.
