Elizabeth Anne Prostic, 31, passed away Thursday, March 31, 2005, in Washington, D.C., after a brief, but courageous struggle with breast cancer.

Born in Philadelphia, she grew up in the Kansas City area and attended The Pembroke Hill School. Lizzie continued her education at the University of Pennsylvania and the George Washington University Law School, where she was a Thurgood Marshall scholar and Moot Court Board Member.

As a Managing Director at Sonnenschein, Nath & Rosenthal LLP, she specialized in public law, political strategies, information security, and internet enforcement. Prior to joining Sonnenschein, Lizzie served as Senior Policy Advisor to U. S. Secretary of Commerce, Donald L. Evans from 2001 to 2004. She was appointed Chief Privacy Officer for the U. S. Department of Commerce in 2003. Before joining the Administration, Lizzie served as Professional Staff Member to Senator John McCain, Chairman of the U. S. Senate Commerce Committee. From 1997 to 2001, she developed and advanced legislation resulting in sixteen public laws on science, technology, and space policy on behalf of Senators John McCain and Bill Frist.

Lizzie is survived by husband, Michael Lundblad; daughter, Harper Lundblad; parents, Dr. Edward and Merry Prostic; brother, Seth Prostic and his wife, Lisa Prostic; sister, Laura Prostic; grandmother, Vera Kaplan; aunt and uncle, Bunni and Paul Copaken; aunt, Harriet Hollander; as well as many other extended family and friends.

Graveside service will be held at Mount Carmel Cemetery on Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. The family will be receiving visitors at the Prostic home Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Lance Armstrong Foundation.
